

JESUS WALKS AMONG US

Introduction

As we come to the Eucharist this evening, let us bring to the altar of the Lord all our cares and concerns – cares and concerns that we have, and the cares and concerns of people around us.

Homily / Reflection

Jesus was walking in the crowd, and some people in the crowd identified him and communicated that to the blind man. And the blind man called to Jesus and was healed.

All of us are blind in some way or the other. We are blind because Jesus is walking with us and we do not recognise him. Let us pray that we might open our eyes to Jesus. Let us also pray that there may be people who tell us that Jesus is there, walking with us, so that we might call to him and be saved by him.

The Lord's Prayer

Before praying to our heavenly Father, let us be silent for a moment and lift up our personal needs and the needs of people around us, praying for God's blessings.
