

Shepherd's Voice

25 November 2018, 4.45 p.m. | 34th Sunday Year B

Revelation 21:1-7

Evening Adoration

GOD MAKES ALL THINGS NEW

Reflection

If we allow ourselves and our families to be ruled by the King, God will make for us a new heaven and a new earth. This is what this reading reminds us about: it is a new heaven and a new earth that is coming down from heaven, which means we do not achieve this new earth but it is God's work. We need to cooperate with him.

Am I cooperating with God so that he can work out in my life and in my home a new heaven and a new earth? This will take place because God is making his home with us. He will live with us. He is our God and we are his people.

This God will take away all forms of sadness and fill our lives with his joy, but it needs our cooperation. It is his work with our cooperation. This will bring about a newness in every aspect of our life – in the brokenness of ourselves, of our families, God will make all things new. He is giving us that refreshing water to make all things new.

Fr Cleophas Fernandes

Parish Priest, St. Pius X Church